

The Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights and Intersentia are pleased to invite you to the launch of

“International Law in Domestic Courts: Rule of Law Reform in Post-Conflict States”

New book by

The Amsterdam Center for International Law

Monday 5 March 2012 – 17:30

Villa Moynier

Rue de Lausanne 120B

States that are in transition after a violent conflict or an authoritarian past face daunting challenges in (re) establishing the rule of law. This volume examines in detail attempts that were made in certain post-conflict or post-authoritarian situations to strengthen the domestic rule of law with the aid of international law. Attention is paid in particular to the empowerment of domestic courts in such situations.

Edited by Edda Kristjansdottir, Andre Nollkaemper and Cedric Ryngaert, the book is the product of a working group led by the Amsterdam Centre for International Law and funded by the COST Action ISO602 of the European Cooperation in the field of Scientific and Technical Research.

WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF

Professor Andrew Clapham

Professor of the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies,
Director of the Geneva Academy of International humanitarian Law and Human Rights

André Nollkaemper

Professor of Public International Law, Amsterdam Centre for International Law (editor)

Cedric Ryngaert

Assistant Professor of International Law, Leuven University; Associate Professor of International Law, Utrecht University (editor)

Ivan Jovanovic

Head of War Crimes Unit, OSCE Mission to Serbia

Nicola Palmer

Research Fellow in Global Justice at St Anne's College, Oxford University

Suzannah Linton

Professor of International Law, Bangor University, Wales UK (commentator)

Evelyne Schmid

PhD candidate IHEID; Lecturer in Law, Bangor University,
Wales UK (moderator)

A small Cocktail will be held after the event

PLEASE CONTACT TATIANA AVANTHAY TO CONFIRM YOUR PRESENCE

Tatiana.avanthay@adh-geneve.ch

Tel: +41 22 908 44 90